BERKSHIRE BLACK ECONOMIC COUNCIL

Purpose & mission

Berkshire Black Economic Council is a 501c3 non-profit organization whose mission is to aid and advocate economic development with respect to education, neighborhood revitalization, arts and culture, business ownership, social programming, environmental justice, recruitment and retention of business regarding the Black community of Berkshire Black Entrepreneurs.

Our vision is to be the lead anchor institution for Black businesses, entrepreneurs, and professionals in the Berkshires and the Commonwealth. We want Black entrepreneurs and businesses to utilize our services and programming for their growth and self-sufficiency.

By encouraging economic justice and implementing new regional initiatives, we hope to open access to capital, technical assistance, and patronage. We are here to provide support to entrepreneurs and promote existing businesses. We aim to attract and inspire other Black businesses to relocate to the Berkshires.

Because of these goals, this packet/brochure is our way to communicate everything the Berkshires has to offer. The purpose of this packet is to not only fulfill the objectives listed above, but to encourage Black people and people of color to visit the Berkshires with the hopes of making it a staple in their travel plan.

Enjoy everything we have to offer here in the Berkshires!

African American sites IN THE BERKSHIRES

Information about African American sites is taken from African American Heritage in the Upper Housatonic Valley, edited by David Levinson, Rachel Fletcher, Frances Jones-Sneed, Bernard Drew, and Elaine Gunn, 2006.

The Upper Housatonic African American Heritage Trail is a physical trail that interprets and visualizes heritage themes that tell the story of African Americans in Berkshire County and Northwestern Connecticut.

It encompasses 29 Massachusetts and Connecticut towns and celebrates African Americans in the region who played pivotal roles in key national and international events, as well as ordinary people of achievement. It is a project of the Upper Housatonic Valley National Heritage Area.

Nature

IN THE BERKSHIRES

HOPKINS MEMORIAL FOREST

NW Hill Rd, Williamstown, MA 01267

The Hopkins Memorial Forest (HMF) is a 2600 acre (1040 ha) reserve in Massachusetts, New York and Vermont managed by the Williams College Center for Environmental Studies (CES) to facilitate research and undergraduate teaching activities while preserving and monitoring forest resources, particularly through long-term ecological research. We strongly encourage disciplinary and interdisciplinary teaching, scholarly activity, and experimental research in the Forest.

NATURAL BRIDGE STATE PARK

McAuley Rd, North Adams, MA 01247

Natural Bridge State Park is a Massachusetts state park located in the city of North Adams in the northwestern part of the state. Named for its natural bridge of white marble, unique in North America, the park also offers woodland walks with views of a dam made of white marble, and a picturesque old marble quarry.

CLARKSBURG STATE PARK

1199 Middle Rd, Clarksburg, MA 01247

Clarksburg State Park is a 368-acre (149 ha) Massachusetts state park located in the town of Clarksburg. The park is made up of unspoiled northern hardwood forest, with views of the Hoosac Range, Mount Greylock and the Green Mountains.[2] It is managed by the Department of Conservation and Recreation.

TACONIC TRAIL STATE PARK

McAuley Rd, North Adams, MA 01247

Taconic Trail State Park is located on Mohawk Trail (MA-2). This hotspot is unique in that it has both early successional forests, pollinator gardens, and with a short hike you can be within a mature forest. The diversity of habitats makes it good for birding and wildlife viewing in any season.

THE CASCADE

North Adams, MA 01247

Explore this 2.2-mile out-and-back trail near North Adams, Massachusetts. Generally considered an easy route, it takes an average of 55 min to complete. This is a very popular area for birding, hiking, and running, so you'll likely encounter other people while exploring. The trail is open year-round and is beautiful to visit anytime. Dogs are welcome, but must be on a leash.

Here in Pittsfield, MA at the very center of The Berkshires is a 45- room boutique hotel that celebrates character in every way. We've used a modern lens to honor the historic buildings we call home, so while whispers of the past echo through the corridors, the vibrant spirit of the hotel draws its life force from the present. Some walls are not precisely straight. Ceiling heights vary. No two guest rooms are exactly alike. Every piece of décor was handpicked for its individuality. You can sip cocktails in a birdcage elevator.

Lightning-fast Wi-Fi beams through exposed brick from the 1880s.
